About Us

At Inspired Closets, we understand that the pace of life can make getting and staying organized difficult, which is why we think of ourselves as creative problem solvers. We've built a reputation as a leader in custom closet and garage organization, partnering with homeowners to solve everyday organizational problems, big and small, in inspiring ways. Our mission is simple: to replace disorganized, stressful spaces with organized, inspired ones. That means listening to customers, designing with intent, and caring for our customers as if they were family. From your free design consultation through site preparation and installation, we're by your side every step of the way, because it's not just about giving you a new space, it's about creating a custom space that you'll absolutely love.

Inspired Closets is locally owned and operated by a member of your community. We invite you to stop by your local showroom or contact us and we'll come to your home. We look forward to meeting you.
